

In Memory of
Dan Lee Isaacs

Dan Lee Isaacs Dan Lee Isaacs entered into rest April 14, 2010 in Tallahassee. Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. EDT Sunday at Culley's MeadowWood Funeral Home-Timberlane Road, with burial at Culley's MeadowWood Memorial Park. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Temple Israel. Dan was a native of Cleveland, Ohio and was a longtime resident of Tallahassee, Florida. He was an entrepreneur and owner of KRM Management. Dan was charter member of Capital City Apartment Association, past officer serving as President, and Association Executive Officer for over thirteen years; past officer of Tallahassee Board of Realtors, having served as Treasurer and President. He had served as past President of The Tallahassee Commerce Council of Real Estate Brokers and was the President of the Tallahassee Street Rodders. Dan was a member of Temple Israel. Survivors include two sons, Martin and wife Angelika Isaacs of Melbourne, Neal J. Isaacs of Garner, N.C.; one granddaughter, Kailey Isaacs; and his Tallahassee family including, Sandler and Barbara Dickson, Michelle and Paul Fijman, Tom and Karen Meehan, Ted Mahomer, and Mike Lovern.